2 BILL NO. R-88-05-12

3 RESOLUTION NO. R- 22-88

4 A RESOLUTION recognizing
5 TRANSIT APPRECIATION DAY

6 WHEREAS, public transportation is vital to the growth
7 and continued economic, social and environmental well-being of 8 the City of Fort Wayne, in that it is the principal tool
9 available to city government to combat urban traffic congestion 10 and the resulting degradation of this city's air quality; and

11 WHEREAS, Public Transit provides the only form of 12 mobility for the "transportation dependent" of society--the 13 poor, the young, the handicapped and the elderly; and

14 WHEREAS, federal financial support for transit has 15 been reduced by over thirty percent in the last four years; and

16 WHEREAS, this retreat of the part of the federal 17 government will result in higher fares and reduced service
18 unless halted; and

19 WHEREAS, a successful counter-attack to combat the 20 loss of federal funds will require the active support of all the 21 citizens of our cities; and

22 WHEREAS, The United States Conference of Mayors has 23 declared Wednesday, May 18, 1988 as NATIONAL TRANSIT
24 APPRECIATION DAY and has called upon all mayors to join in a 25 national mobilization to highlight for all citizens the vital role that transit plays in the life of cities.

26 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, THE COMMON
27 COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, acknowledges that Wednesday,
28 May 18, 1988, has been proclaimed as TRANSIT APPRECIATION DAY
29 and urges all Fort Wayne citizens to recognize the vital role of 30 transit in this city.

TRANSIT APPRECIATION DAY

WHEREAS, public transportation is vital to the growth and continued economic, social and environmental well-being of the City of Fort Wayne, in that it is the principal tool available to city government to combat urban traffic congestion and the resulting degradation of this city's air quality; and

WHEREAS, Public Transit provides the only form of mobility for the "transportation dependent" of society — the poor, the young, the handicapped and the elderly; and

WHEREAS, federal financial support for transit has been reduced by over thirty percent in the last four years; and

WHEREAS, this retreat on the part of the federal government will result in higher fares and reduced service unless halted; and

WHEREAS, a successful counter-attack to combat the loss of federal funds will require the active support of all the citizens of our cities; and

WHEREAS, The United States Conference of Mayors has declared Wednesday, May 18, 1988 as National Transit Appreciation Day and has called upon all mayors to join in a national mobilization to highlight for all citizens the vital role that transit plays in the life of cities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Paul Hentke, Mayor of Fort Wayne, proclaim Wednesday, May 18, 1988 as TRANSIT APPRECIATION DAY and call upon all citizens to recognize the vital role of transit in this city.

The United States Conference of Mayors will provide further information and assistance in organizing your city's efforts for the NATIONAL TRANSIT APPRECIATION DAY. In an effort to assist us, please provide us with the name of the lead staff member in your city.

To develop a national perspective of the activities of May 18, The Conference of Mayors needs to know what you are doing in your city. Please send us a copy of your city's proclamation and a listing or description of your planned activities. We need this information as early as possible so that we might share your ideas with other cities and work with the national press and Congress to highlight NATIONAL TRANSIT APPRECIATION DAY.
